WELLINGTON, KANSAS.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1892.

The Democratic papers and leaders are already "hedging" on the tariff issue. If the "protection" part of the tariff is not wiped out, the Democratic party is liable to be.

The people of Caldwell jubilated Saturday night last, and had a grand, good time. Judge Haisell went down from here to mingle his cup of joy with the good people of the Border Queen.

The American Crank is the title of a new seven column paper just started at Oswego, Kansas, by Harry Mills and W. W. Whetstone. It is neat and full of life and of course advocates the reform or "cranky" ideas of the People's party.

The subject of sending Mrs. Mary E. Lease as United States Senator from Kansas is being freely discussed. It is not likely that she will be chosen, but if she should it is safe to predict that the old barnacles, mossbacks, fogies and monopoly attorneys would receive the liveliest shaking up that august body has ever received in its checkered history. For that reason we would like to see Mrs. Lease elected, but for other reasons some other gentleman is preferable.

According to the press dispatches there was a "stormy" meeting of the National Alliance at Memphis last week and the Macune-Tilman ring was relegated to the rear. It was shown that they had used their influence as officers of the Alliance to help the Democratic party in the south. The "split" reported by the same dispatches consisted of the withdrawal of one man. The government ownership of the telegraph lines will put an end to the lying associated press, and the sooner this is accomplished the better.

The Monitor would have the people believe that the popularity of the Hon. Jerry Simpson is on the decline because his majority is not as large as when elected before. The figures show that he has many more friends in the district than before, but his majority was reduced by the Republicans casting hundreds of illegal votes. Next time we will have the Australian voting system, which will shut out Oklahoma negroes, repeaters and ballot-box stuffers, and then we shall see whose popularity is on the wane.

The new move of the National Alliance is one of the grandest schemes ever introduced in American politics. Organizations will be effected all over the country, to be known as the "Industrial Legion of the United States." It is patterned after the Grand Army of the Republic and will be made up of three classes—male members over twenty-one years of age, to be known as the senior class; male members under twenty-one and over fourteen, the junior class, and the Women's Aid Corps the third class. The boys will be brought up in the way they should go and learned to vote intelligently. Stated meetings will be held at which prepared programs will be carried out consisting of speeches, essays, debates, recitations, etc. Political economy, the constitution, platforms, finance, the tariff and other leading questions will receive attention, and patriotism and fraternity will be instilled in the rising generation, to the end that all classes may be benefitted and elections become an honest expression of intelligent voters.

All the leaders of the Alliance are charter members, with Paul Vanderhoort as Commander-in-chief; Hon. Frank Burkitt of Mississippi, vice commander-in-chief; J. H. Turner, adjutant general; J. F. Washburn, Massachusetts, quartermaster general; Congressman T. E. Watson, national recruiting officer; J. F. Willets, national recruiting officer of the Western division; W. S. Morgan, national sentinel; executive council, Hon. H. E. Taubeneck, Illinois, Marion Cannon, California, Hon. Marion Butler, Hon. J. H. Davis, Texas, I. E. Dean, New York, and J. F. Willets. These together with the high officers will constitute the council.

Of the officers of the Woman's Aid corps Mrs. Anna L. Diggs, of Washington City and Mrs. Marion Todd, of Michigan, were chosen provisional officers to organize that department.

Mr. Taubeneck said in an interview that the work of organizing would be promptly begun, and inside of thirty days they would be established in every state in the union; and by next year this time would have 1,500,000 members.

Let's all get ready to join.

Marriage Licenses.

The following license to marry have been issued by Probate Judge Chapman since our last report:

Mark Morris, Wellington.
Mary F. Austin, Hennessey, Ok.
Wm. Marick, Bluff City.
Martha S. Shore, Argentina.
W. C. Donaldson, Caldwell.
Blanche Smith.
Carry Davis, Milan.
Rhoda F. Sayers, Milan.
E. M. Maggard, Oxford.
Laura Hardman.
Edgar F. Huffman, Wellington.
Rosa M. Cochran, Doster.
J. B. Pepperdine, Wellington.
Ninnie M. Cox.
H. A. Peters, Wellington.
Rosa Kiehl, South Haven.

The first named couple were married by Judge Chapman Friday evening.

CONWAY SPRINGS.

Hurrah for the infant wonder, the two year old giant, wearing No. 12 boots and walking over a Republican majority in the state of Kansas four years ago of $2,000, called the People's party.

Wonder if our Republican friends know we are on top? We all feel good around Conway Springs except the Republicans. Wonder what happened them in the late election?

Dock Hobson, our next representative from this district, will feel rather lonesome without his Republican friends in the legislature. But as he goes a free man, not slobbered over by any party, as he termed it the day after election, we hope he will work in harmony with our men for the good of the whole people of this state and not for monopoly and corporations. Stand up for Kansas as our Republican friends called it before election.

A. E. Barry sends for his mail now. He has no business at Conway any more. Guess he will live over, though. If the report of the electoral count don't give him a relapse. If it should, we give him up sure.

To hear J. B. Duncan tell it, penisons, railroads, manufactories of all kinds, and we guess People's party voters going back to the old party, will stop after the 4th of March next. The guess will be all right, Joe, but the rest will go on just the same as though Bon had got there. Brace up, brother! The earth will revolve on its axis just the same.

Our advice now is, organize for the next election, keep the good work going until we get relief. Kansas, the north, the south, the United States, yes, the whole world has heard us and the Republicans believe we are in it now. Take our word for it, we are in it to stay, boys, to the finish.

We are sorry that Brother G. E. Meeker was defeated, but probably the Lord granted it to be so to teach us not to trust in our own strength, but in the strength of the Lord. Let us take God for our refuge, truth and right for our watchword and a platform built upon them in the interest of the whole people of these United States, and we are bound to win.

With the best of feeling toward all and malice toward none, I send you these items and if they do not find their way to the waste basket, I will try to keep our friends posted from this part of the county in the future. With congratulations to all of our candidates and a renewed pledge to be found in the ranks, backed up by right, I am,

Yours truly, CALANITY.

BELLE PLAINE.

Business here is as good as could be expected. Many of the farmers are selling their wheat and corn, paying their bills and getting ready for winter.

Joseph Sparger will have a sale the 28th at his home south of the D. M. & A. depot.

The ratification here was a grand success. Republicans say it reminded them of the good old times they used to have. The Palestine boys showed up grandly.

The stockholders of the Alliance Exchange are to have a meeting here Nov. 26, at 2 p. m.

Now is the time to scatter good reading matter over the county. Organize People's party clubs, bring good papers into notice, have debates, songs and a good time generally at the meetings. As the Eagle says, "let's all stand up for Kansas."

There is good reading now in the Eagle. We love to hear the scream. Seems to sound better now since the election is over.

Three old veterans who cast their first vote for Andrew Jackson voted here the 8th. Two were People's party men and the other a Republican.

ONE OF THE BOYS.

A Rosebud Dinner.

The very name suggests a vision of lovely young girls, fragrant flowers, soft lights, entrancing music and youth and hope and love and all things beautiful. Were you ever fortunate enough to be a guest at one? Or do you know how this delightful society function is conducted? You ought to know, whether you have daughters to "bring out" or not; and you may learn all about it, etiquette and everything, through the charming paper, charmingly illustrated, entitled, A Debutante's Winter in New York, published in Demorest's Family Magazine for December. This holiday number is fairly plethoric with good things, introduced by an artistic gem, Christmas Chimes, a reproduction of a picture exhibited in the last Paris salon, painted by a noted American artist. Then follow a dozen copies of world-famous paintings, illustrating a splendid article on Noted Madonnas; an especially timely illustrated article on The Wondrous Star, which furnishes much interesting information about the "three wise men" who followed where it led; and there are superb portraits of the lamented Mrs. Benjamin Harrison and England's lost poet-laureate, Tennyson. If you are in doubt what presents to make for Christmas, you can't do better than consult the Home Art department in this comprehensive number of that ideal Family Magazine, which contains something of interest to every one who may open good stories, good poems, lots of valuable suggestions, and nearly 300 superior illustrations. And all is furnished for 20 cents a copy, or $2 a year. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th St., New York.

The question of a division of the state is now being agitated again. The Republicans of the west half are disgusted with their eastern brothers.

SETTLED

THE great political contest is settled; some are happy and some are not, but business is business, and the question that now comes to the minds of the readers of the PEOPLE'S VOICE is, Where can I buy my goods the cheapest, and the best goods for the money? We want every mother to know that croup can be prevented. True croup never appears without a warning. The first symptom is hoarseness, then the child appears to have taken cold or a cold may have accompanied the hoarseness from the start. After that a peculiar rough cough is developed, which is followed by the croup. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse; a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy would prevent the attack. Even after the rough cough has appeared, the disease may be prevented by using this remedy as directed. The only safe way is to keep a 50 cent bottle of the Remedy in the house for use whenever symptoms of the disease appear. For sale by H. F. Smith.

FOR SORE THROAT.—Saturate a dannel bandage with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on the throat. It will cure any ordinary case in one night's time. For sale by H. F. Smith.
